

I write to urge you to reject the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking #02-230, which would limit the functionality of digital television sets. Let the free market be free. Ultimately, this will not only improve the content providers product, but improve the consumers use of content as well.